Subject: Notes from Convoy Briefing #16

Unclassified

Notes from 5pm call:

- Less than 50 people on the Hill;; 200-300 people on the street – Rideau, Wellington, Sussex, footprint remains unchanged; looked at opening a sideroad but remained closed at the request of Councillor Fleury; no significant issues; 100 officers and POU deployed; visible presence for proactive enforcement now; OPP confirmed heavy enforcement on highway off-ramps; Traffic now doing heavier enforcement; POU on standby [redacted], PLT currently engaged; Confed Park was fenced off by NCC this morning, everything has been removed, shack has been loaded on a flat bed and removed; OFD, assisted by OPS, did air analysis on Wellington for CO_2 levels – went around giving warnings to people about carbon monoxide poisoning; uniformed members did proactive enforcement to get movement on Kent St, wrote some tickets, resulting in one lane for one block being cleared for emergency; good feedback from members about level of comfort on what is manageable, getting good read on crowd, enforcing when they can; looking at other win opportunities;
- R. Drummond – working on staffing plan;
- P. Burnett – patrol being updated about idling bylaw for vehicles running through the night;
- J. Mbakulo – NRTs out doing enforcement, high visibility walk throughs;
- B. Samuel – working with Debbie Palmer and Matt Skoff regarding CEF and 4 platoon schedule; update to come shortly.
